Course Outline:

An ancient technique for the modern world! Come and enjoy exploring this amazing medium! In the time of the Pharaoh's this self glazing clay body was developed and used to make beads and small trinkets in beautiful turquoise shades. This workshop will expand on the range of colours used and will start with custom buttons, beads and pendants. The second day we will make pieces using milliflore technique and explore using the milliflore for trays and small bowls. The recipes, mixing process, special drying and firing process will be explained. No clay experience required!

Course Materials:

The price of this workshop includes all materials... the coloured blended Egyptian Paste, the shared use of tools, custom slump and spring molds, drying/firing racks and kiln firing
